Wow where do I start.I thought the game looked quite good from the screenshots and I dont like the flashlight situation where you have to rush trying to find more flashlights some of them you can't even pickup like the one in the bathroom. Once you have gone through a door it won't let you back through only did this with some doors though once you have run out of flashlights your stuck in the dark and PLZZZZZZZZZZ turn down your headphones. I hope the flashlight situation changes. https://youtu.be/Oe75jbonuSs. The only reason my review is negative is because of the multitude of bugs we encountered. The main being a terrifyingly loud beeping sound followed by a bsod for the game after entering a room shortly after taking the key from the corpse. I'd actually like to see the developer do this game justice and continue to work on this game. Whereas I normally trash games like this, I actually see potential here. I'll advise any way I can.
